

LALO SCHIFRIN

Bullitt

Speakers Corner/Warner Bros WS1777 180g vinyl

It's easy to rattle off names like Mancini or Barry, but why do we often miss Schifrin, who deserves kudos for the theme to Mission: Impossible? Add to this the Dirty Harry films, not to mention a host of others and we are talking A-list. This is one of his finest, a jazz score for Steve McQueen's cop thriller, and the fun is recalling the scenes as the LP progresses. Sonically, it's up there with the best: try not making 'vroom' noises during the car chase.
