The label also recreated all of the original album elements from the original 1972 release. The front and back cover as well as the 2 sided cardboard insert perfectly capture the feeling you would get if you purchased this album 48 years ago. The album also includes lyrics and comes with an audiophile inner sleeve. Even the actual Elektra Records album sticker has been faithfully recreated making the whole vinyl experience the best it can possibly be.

As for the album itself, "No Secrets" is a classic from start to finish and contains some of Carly's biggest hits, "The Right Thing To Do" and "You're So Vain" and most personal songs, "We Have No Secrets" and "It Was So Easy." The album eventually achieved platinum status and topped the Billboard Album charts for over 5 weeks.
